

Action Guide

390: Experiences that make product managers grow

Tom Leung

Application Questions

1. What was your path to product management? What makes you excited about it?
2. Describe a time you failed. What did you learn?
3. What is an experience that helped you grow as a product leader?

Actions to Take

What to Do Now

- Develop the characteristics of product managers who excel: trustworthy, clear communicators, mini CEO mentality, curiosity.
- Take time to reflect on your failures, successes, and opportunities for growth.

What to Do Soon

- Ask others for feedback and implement it.
- When you're making a hard decision, bring other people along. Balance doing it delicately and not waiting too long.
