

Action Guide

419: Improv to Improve Your Team's Creativity

Seth Greenwald

Application Questions

1. Has anyone you work with taken an improv class? What did they learn from it?
2. Google improv exercises. Which ones could help your group improve how they interact?
3. Share ideas for improving how your group collaborates.

Actions to Take

What to Do Now

- Use the phrase “yes, and” in discussions. Build on what others have said while offering your own ideas.
- Before you critique your or others’ ideas, be creative and consider many options.

What to Do Soon

- Practice “all-in” listening. Give your full attention to what the other person is saying rather than thinking about what you’re going to say next while they’re talking.
- Consider taking a presentation or improv class to improve your communication and collaboration skills.